

MAINSTREAMING BIODIVERSITY

- Towards Achieving Aichi Biodiversity Targets and SDGs -

3:30 - 5:50pm, June 21, 2017

Room 101 of Building 6, Sophia University

To achieve global targets to reverse the trends of biodiversity loss and ensure no one is left behind, collaborative efforts among a range of stakeholders is critical. On the occasion of Dr. Cristiana Paşca Palmer, Executive Secretary of the Convention on Biological Diversity's visit to Japan, we are honored to host a symposium and discuss how stakeholders could work together to achieve equitable sustainable futures for all.
