

FIFTY YEARS OF PINOCHET AND CHILE IN WORLD HISTORY

FRIDAY 24

More than fifty years have passed since the establishment of the Pinochet military regime, and Chile's political, economic, social, and cultural landscapes have undergone profound transformations. This international conference brings together Latin American studies scholars from Korea and Japan to discuss Chile's past and present from diverse perspectives, as a country that has carried the painful legacy of military rule while undergoing successive processes of change.

Central library Room L921, Sophia University Free admission, No reservation required.

Time	Presentaion titles	Presenter	Discussant
14:30	Opening remarks
	Park, Jungwon (Kyung Hee University)
	Kishikawa, Takeshi (Sophia University)
<Session 1> Moderator: Park, Jungwon
14:40	Politics of Memory over the Extended Pinochet Regime in Chile.	Park, Koobyoun (Ajou University)	Urabe, Hiroyuki (Dokkyo Univeristy)
15:10	Affect and Culture in Chile's Post-Dictatorial Era (in Spanish).	Woo, Suk-Kyun (Seoul National University)	Yanagihara, Takaatsu (University of Tokyo)
15:40	Fragile Democracies, Fading Memories: The Alzheimer's Metaphor in Chilean and Brazilian Cinema.	Park, Jungwon	Dias, Nilta (Sophia University)
16:10	The Mapuche People under the Pinochet Dictatorship: Silencing and Resistance (in Spanish)	Dias, Nilta	Woo, Suk-Kyun
16:40	Break
<Session 2> Moderator: Oba, Kodama (Dokkyo University)
17:00	Chilean Health Care Reform Under the Long-Term Pinochet Regime.	Kwak, Jaesung (Kyung Hee University)	Hataya, Noriko (Sophia University)
17:30	Rethinking the Chilean Miracle: Crises and Policy Responses in Chile. Authors: Jun, Juram, Carrasco Soto, Sebastián Alejandro (San Sebastian University, Chile), Hernández Aracena, Javier (Temuco Catholic University, Chile)	Jun, Juram (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies)	Tani, Hiroyuki (Sophia University)
18:00	Chile's Political Polarization and the New Extreme Right.	Lim, Sujin (Daegu Catholic University)	Kishikawa, Takeshi
18:30	The Impact of Neoliberalism on Disaster Resilience in Chile (in Spanish)	Urabe, Hiroyuki	Kwak, Jaesung

Organized by

Ibero-American Institute, Sophia University

Co organized by

The Hispanic Studies Institute of Kyung Hee University
National Research Foundation of Korea

한국연구재단
National Research Foundation of Korea

경희대학교
KYUNG HEE UNIVERSITY

"Forming new ties in the Pacific Rim: East Asia and Latin America"
Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (A) Grant Number: 23H00041

경희대학교 히스패닉연구소
Institute of Hispanic Studies