

2

From the front lines:

Nonprofit leaders speak out about ... Poverty

Wed. June 13th

18:45-20:15

Sophia University, Yotsuya Campus
Building 6, Room 307

Panel Presentations followed by open discussion.

Panelists

Miku Sano, Big Issue Japan, Tokyo Office

<https://www.bigissue.jp/>

佐野 未来 マネージャー 有限会社 ビッグイシュー日本

The Big Issue Japan is a business response to a social problem: homelessness. Established in 2003, The Big Issue Japan publishes a high-quality magazine that is sold by homeless people.

ビッグイシューは質の高い雑誌をつくりホームレスの人の独占販売事業とすることで、「働く場」をつくる試みです。ホームレス経験者をビジネスパートナーとしてホームレス問題の解決に挑戦しています。

Ayumi Kato, Executive Director, Moyai

<http://www.npomoyai.or.jp/>

加藤 歩 事務局長 認定NPO法人自立生活サポートセンター・もやい

Moyai supports those living poverty by providing consultation services, assisting with housing and by serving as a guarantor.

もやいは、生活に困窮した人への相談支援、アパートの連帯保証人引き受け、当事者の居場所づくりなどを通じ、貧困問題に取り組んでいます。

Moderator: Sarajejan Rossitto, Sophia University, Nonprofit NGO consultant

Host: Prof. David Slater, Coordinator, Global Action Program, Sophia University

In English; without translation.

Open to the public; no charge, no prior registration necessary

Location: Sophia University,

7-1 Kioicho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 102-8554

Access: Yotsuya station (JR, Marunouchi and Namboku subway lines)

Map link to campus:

http://www.sophia.ac.jp/eng/info/access/directions/access_yotsuya

Map link to campus building:

http://www.sophia.ac.jp/eng/info/access/map/map_yotsuya

Email Contact: sophia.Global.Action@gmail.com

1

Nonprofit leaders
speak out about
... Refugees

May 23rd

18:45-20:15

3

Nonprofit leaders
speak out about
... Gender

July 4th

18:45-20:15