

3

From the front lines:

Nonprofit leaders speak out about ... Gender

Wed. July 4th

18:45-20:15

Sophia University, Yotsuya Campus
Building 6, Room 307

Panel Presentations followed by open discussion.

Panelists

Sachi Nakajima, J.D., M.S.W. Founding Director, Resilience

中島 幸子 代表、米国法学博士、社会福祉学修士
NPO法人 レジリエンス <http://resilience.jp/>

Resilience is a non-profit organization supporting women in healing and regaining their lives after an abusive relationship. レジリエンスは、DVや虐待、モラハラ、その他様々な原因による心の傷つきやトラウマに関する情報を広げる活動を行っている。

Sarah Everitt Furuya, Consultant, facilitator, trainer & coach

サラ 古家 コンサルタント、ファシリテーター、トレーナー&ライフコーチ <https://sarahfuruya.com/>

Furuya is an independent consultant, facilitator, trainer and coach. She built her coaching practice, which focuses mainly on female clients of all nationalities, on years of professional experience designing and delivering workshops focussed on cross-cultural performance enhancement and leadership skills development. 古家は異文化のパフォーマンスとリーダーシップスキルの開発に女性を指導する。

Moderator: Sarajeane Rossitto, Sophia University, Nonprofit NGO consultant

Host: Prof. David Slater, Coordinator, Global Action Program, Sophia University

In English; without translation.

Open to the public; no charge, no prior registration necessary

Location: Sophia University,

7-1 Kioicho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 102-8554

Access: Yotsuya station (JR, Marunouchi and Namboku subway lines)

Map link to campus: http://www.sophia.ac.jp/eng/info/access/directions/access_yotsuya

Map link to campus building: http://www.sophia.ac.jp/eng/info/access/map/map_yotsuya

Email Contact: sophia.Global.Action@gmail.com

1

Nonprofit leaders
speak out about
... Refugees

May 23rd
18:45-20:15

2

Nonprofit leaders
speak out about
... Poverty

June 13th
18:45-20:15